

Artist Statement

Balance is a complex act. My work is an example of the kind of imperfect things I wish to see in the world. Like moving water or filtering light, I use my materials to create moments for the viewer to pause and reflect. Sometimes these moments are illusions of imagery that I cannot control. And sometimes they are very real illustrations of what I want the viewer to see. My best work captures a responsive tension between this fabricated illusion and playful illustration.

Kate Kisicki 2016